2016 Thomas R. Camp Lecture Strategies for Managing 21st Century Water Challenges

H. Curtis "Curt" Spalding

Administrator for EPA's New England Region (Region 1)

Thursday, June 2, 2016

Wyndham Boston Beacon Hill, 5 Blossom Street, Boston, MA

5:45 PM Social/Registration; 6:30 PM Dinner; 7:00 PM Presentation

Curt Spalding, USEPA Region One administrator, will talk about how challenges like climate change are impacting water management issues throughout New England. EPA New England has worked through some of these challenges with more holistic and comprehensive approaches to protect some of our most iconic resources.

Curt Spalding has extensive experience in the environmental protection field as an advocate, policy analyst and administrator. For almost 20 years, he served as executive director of Save the Bay in Rhode Island, a nationally recognized, 20,000-member environmental advocacy and education organization. Since joining the EPA leadership team in February 2010, Spalding has been leading a holistic approach to finding environmental solutions in New England. He's emphasized efforts in community engagement, sustainability, environmental justice and green economy.

This talk should be attended by anyone with an interest in Water Resources, Sustainability and Climate Change including civil engineers, architects, planners, state and municipal administrators.
