

MSLS Fall Meeting hosted by Androscoggin Chapter

“Mock Trial - emphasizing The Role of a Land Surveyor as an Expert Witness”

Help us resolve several boundary disputes between two fictitious property owners; you'll be the jury!

October 25, 2019 ~ Italian Heritage Center, Westland Avenue, Portland Maine

Justice Robert E. Crowley is a retired judge who, since his retirement, has been engaged in a full time dispute resolution practice at the law firm of Kelly, Rimmel and Zimmerman. His practice focuses on private judging, mediation, arbitration and neutral evaluation of cases. He also acts as settlement counsel and as strategic counsel in litigated matters.

During his tenure as a judge of the Maine District Court for 6 years, and a justice of the Maine Superior Court for 17 years, he issued decisions on dozens of boundary and easement disputes.

The Judge is a graduate of Georgetown University (B.A.) and Georgetown University Law Center (J.D.)
