Fall 2019 Public Private Partnership Workshop: Innovative Financing Methods for Large Projects in New England

Program:

7:30 AM – 8:15 AM

Registration & Continental Breakfast Welcome Remarks

Moderator: Dan McNichol Dan McNichol is a number one best-selling author and an award-winning journalist. His published books, articles and thought-leadership work focuses on mega construction projects in the United States and around the world.

8:15 AM – 8:45 AM

Speaker Presentation

Carolyn Ryan, Senior Vice President, Policy and Research, Boston Chamber of Commerce
Directs and manages the Chamber's policy priorities and strategizes for the team's long and short-term goals. She is a member of the Federal Reserve Bank's New England Public Policy Center Advisory Board and will briefly outline the work of the New England Public Policy Center.

8:45 AM – 9:30 AM

Speaker Presentation

Tim McManus, Global Infrastructure Advisor, former Vice President with McKinsey & Company

Managing Large Projects, A review of global infrastructure projects with focus on infrastructure demands in growing metropolitan areas. He is supportive of non-profit corporate multi-state regional planning groups. In his paper Managing Big Projects, Mr. McManus outlines five essential elements for successful projects. The lack of a few (if not all) of these elements will hinder project activities and cause suffering along the critical path.

9:30 AM – 10:00 AM

Speaker Presentation

Keith Craig, Director, NB Development and Chris Hersey, Skanska Corp.

The newly completed Boston Landing Station project in the Allston-Brighton neighborhood in Massachusetts is the recent recipient of the Envision® Silver Award. Constructed by Skanska, the project is part of a larger complex currently underway by NB Development Group, an affiliate of New Balance Athletics, Inc. In a public-private partnership that has been lauded by city and state officials alike, NB Development Group funded and managed the design and construction of the approximately $20 Million station in close collaboration with the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) and the Massachusetts Department of Transportation (MassDOT).

10:00 AM – 10:15 AM

Break with coffee and refreshments

10:15AM – 11:00 AM

Speaker Presentation

Tom Wright, President and CEO, Regional Plan Association, NY, NJ and CT Tri-state Region

The success of RPA on shaping the future of the New York City region is legend. Beginning in the 1920s with the RPA's recommendations on the location of the George Washington Bridge to its latest Fourth Plan on a sustainable future for the next century, the RPA is a model for effective multistate regional planning. Recent efforts to kick-start a congestion pricing solution which would help to fund tri-state public transit and rail projects will be presented.

11:00 AM – 12:00 PM

Workshop Panel

Speakers will lead a discussion of a possible New England Plan which include multi-state issues where large mega-projects extend benefits and costs across state boundaries. Many projects include transportation and energy issues. Q&A from the audience

12:00 PM Closing Remarks

Lunch menus from selected local restaurants will be available at the registration table.
