EXCERPTS FROM THE BYLAWS OF ACEC/MA, INC. (6-28-13): Article II – Membership

SECTION 2. QUALIFICATIONS

- A. Member firms shall be limited to those whose individual firms, parent firms, branch offices, divisions, or subsidiaries that have principals who furnish consulting engineering services, and shall
 - 1. maintain established offices for the practice of consulting engineering, as (i) sole proprietorships; (ii) partnerships; (iii) limited liability corporations, (iv) limited liability partnerships or (v) corporations, divisions or subsidiaries furnishing consulting engineering services provided that their officers act for them on professional policies and activities;
 - 2. have one or more registered or licensed professionally in accordance with the laws of the states of Massachusetts and who are in direct control or in responsible charge for the professional services that are performed in that state;
 - 3. belong to The Council;
 - 4. practice consulting engineering in accordance with The Council Professional and Ethical Conduct Guidelines;
 - 5. practice under an organizational arrangement that does not involve a conflict of interest or that does not subordinate independent professional judgment to other considerations. Firms or corporations wholly or partially owned by commercial, construction contracting, manufacturing, sales, public utility, holding company or other similar organizations which function as service organizations for the controlling company, shall not be eligible for membership if such ownership arrangements prejudice or subordinate the professional or ethical judgment of the consulting engineers.
- B. A Member firm shall maintain an office in Massachusetts for the practice of consulting engineering or land surveying.
- C. The principal or principals who are registered professionals shall have final control within the firm with respect to professional policies and activities. A Member firm shall have a minimum of one Professional Engineer or Land Surveyor regularly assigned to the staff of each member office.
- D. All employees of a Member firm shall automatically be members.
- E. An Affiliate member shall be a professional services firm including (but not restricted to) architectural or landscape architectural firms (or an individual providing such services), an environmental science firm and not otherwise engaged in the practice of consulting engineering or land surveying, a services firm or vendor firm with a client base among ACEC/MA Member firms and other professionals in the areas including, but not limited to, accounting, MIS consulting, insurance, marketing and communications, construction, construction management, and business management. An Affiliate member firm shall not be engaged in the practice of consulting engineering or land surveying. An Affiliate member shall maintain an office in Massachusetts.
- F. Affiliate members together shall not comprise more than forty percent (40%) of the total member firms of ACEC/MA. Affiliate members may be subject to annual review and approval by the Board of Directors and membership may be terminated at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Board of Directors present at a formal (quorum) meeting.
- G. A Non-Resident Member Firm shall meet all the criteria for Member Firm, except that the firm does not have an office in Massachusetts.

SECTION 3. APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

An application to become a Member firm, an Affiliate member, a Non-Resident member, or a Retired member shall be made on such application form as is from time to time prescribed by ACEC/MA. The application shall be submitted to the Membership Committee of ACEC/MA, which shall review the applicant and forward the application together with the Committee’s recommendation to the Board of Directors. If an applicant is a subsidiary of a non-engineering or non-land surveying firm, the application must include a written statement verifying the independence of the subsidiary in the practice of consulting engineering. An applicant shall become a Member firm only upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Board of Directors present at a formal (quorum) meeting, and upon payment of an application fee as determined by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 4. REPRESENTATIVES OF MEMBER FIRMS AND NON-RESIDENT MEMBER FIRMS

Each Member firm and each Non-Resident member firm shall designate one individual to serve as its official representative to ACEC/MA. The representative shall be a principal of the Member firm, or Non-Resident member firm.

SECTION 5. REPRESENTATIVES OF AFFILIATE MEMBERS

An Affiliate member firm shall be permitted up to two representatives to ACEC/MA. The representative may not serve as an ACEC/MA Officer or Director. The representative may serve as the chair or co-chair of a Committee or Task Force. The representative may attend and participate in all ACEC/MA activities. Affiliate member firm representatives shall serve without voting capacity, as an advisor only.

I have read the qualifications for Full Membership, Affiliate Membership, and Non-resident Membership in the American Council of Engineering Companies of Massachusetts, Inc., and believe that the firm/applicant meets the necessary requirements. Further, I hereby attest to the independence of the firm, if a subsidiary, in the practice of professional services.
