House Green Recovery Task Force Seeks Input

As noted at recent ACEC/MA Water, Energy and Enviro.
Comm (WEEC), and GAC meetings, we seek your input on engineering business community needs to share with the MA House's Green Recovery Task Force.

ACTION REQUESTED by 10/2: What should ACEC/MA cover on climate, energy, workforce and environmental justice goals for future state legislation, on behalf of our engineering business community and our clients? Email Abbie Goodman.

Last week, Rep. Carolyn Dykema briefed our WEEC meeting on the MA House's Green Recovery Task Force.

On 9/30, the Task Force, chaired by State Rep Tom Golden, held its first listening session with stakeholders in our green economy who have been impacted by the pandemic. Legislators want to hear how COVID-19 has impacted our engineering business community, our clients, and how we can move forward toward a green recovery.

Holistic Infrastructure Planning & Design

10/7, 3:30 - 4:30 PM on Zoom

From ACEC Research Institute with Accelerator for America: Existing and potential innovations in federal economic recovery policy plays, including the new concept to establish a federal infrastructure planning council to coordinate multiple agency policies and funding programs, opportunities to expand federal discretionary grant programs to address broader needs and break down infrastructure silos, and how federal leadership could guide cities with their complete street plans.
