Legislature continues to discuss Economic Development Bill: House Ways and Means Committee Chair Aaron Michlewitz on Tuesday said legislative negotiators are still in need more time to reach agreement on the economic development bill they did not finalize this summer. Chair Michlewitz said the House and Senate were eyeing expedient action on a bill, but said what will be included remains part of negotiations and he was not clear on whether leaders would try to call members back for a special session with roll calls.
