

As a means of fostering participation in Society activities, the Boston Society of Civil Engineers Section has established an award to recognize those employers who encourage their engineers to actively participate in ASCE and BSCES. Special recognition will go to those organizations who exhibit exemplary support as evidenced by:

- Providing a model for involvement through organization-wide participation in local, regional, and national ASCE and BSCES activities.
- Allowing engineers time off to attend ASCE and BSCES meetings and seminars.
- Being sponsors of ASCE and BSCES meetings/ seminars or being sponsors of the BSCES Newsletter.
- Supporting and encouraging technical and professional growth.
- Encouraging engineers to prepare articles for publication in the BSCES Newsletter or ASCE and BSCES professional and technical journals.
- Assisting in the payment of ASCE and BSCES dues.

Eligible companies are considered large if they employ 50 or more Massachusetts employees
