

Gov. Maura Healey's Cabinet (as of 1/25/2023)

Open Cabinet Posts

Veterans' Services

(Becomes a Cabinet-level position in March.) Secretary Cheryl Lussier Poppe, a Baker administration holdover, continues to serve on an acting basis.

Housing

Gov. Healey plans to split a standalone Executive Office of Housing off of the current Housing and Economic Development secretariat, but has not yet named who will lead the new office.

In Process

Secretary Designated, Not Sworn In

Transportation

Gina Fiandaca: Healey plans to swear her into office on January 30. Jamey Tesler, the MassDOT secretary under Gov. Baker, is acting secretary in the interim.

Health and Human Services

Kate Walsh: Will be sworn in on March 1, per Healey's office. Mary Beckman, who is set to serve as senior advisor at HHS after the secretary takes over, is currently the acting secretary.

Done

Cabinet Members Sworn In By Gov. Healey

Technology Services and Security

Jason Snyder: Sworn in Jan. 24

Labor and Workforce Development

Lauren Jones: Sworn in January 17

Housing and Economic Development

Yvonne Hao: Sworn in January 17

Public Safety and Security

Secretary Terrence Reidy: Sworn
in Jan. 5

Administration and Finance

Secretary Matthew Gorzkowicz:
Sworn in Jan. 5

Education

Secretary Patrick Tutwiler: Sworn
in Jan. 5

Energy and Environmental Affairs

Secretary Rebecca Tepper: Sworn
in Jan. 5

Climate Chief

Chief Melissa Hoffer: Sworn in Jan.

6